Wins 2010 AASLH Award of Merit

NASHVILLE, TN—July, 2010—The American Association for State and Local History (AASLH) proudly announces that Jonathan Fein and Brian Danitz are the recipients of an Award of Merit from the AASLH Leadership in History Awards for the documentary Objects and Memory. The AASLH Leadership in History Awards, now in its 65th year, is the most prestigious recognition for achievement in the preservation and interpretation of state and local history. Awards for 2010 represent 49 organizations and individuals from across the United States. Award winners will be honored at a special banquet during the 2010 AASLH Annual Meeting in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on Friday, September 24. A generous contribution from The History Channel will once again help underwrite the cost of the awards banquet.

The AASLH awards program was initiated in 1945 to establish and encourage standards of excellence in the collection, preservation, and interpretation of state and local history throughout the United States. The AASLH Leadership in History Awards not only honor significant achievement in the field of state and local history, but also
